

Sun, 04/09/2023 - 12:00am

Lamesa Economic Development on Thursday afternoon hosted a groundbreaking ceremony for the new Tea2Go TeaN'energy business which is just now beginning construction at 411 N. Dallas Ave., where Eiland Lumber Company was located for many years. Handling the ceremonial turning of dirt were franchisees Casey and Jordan Addison and their four children (from left) 8-year-old Jennings, five-year-old twins Witt and Austin, and 9-year-old Bennett. Also participating were Bobby Gonzales (second from left), Lamesa Economic Development board president and Lamesa City Council member, and City Manager Joe Hines.

PLEASE LOG IN FOR PREMIUM CONTENT. Our website requires visitors to log in to view the best local news. Not yet a subscriber? Subscribe today!

Tags:

PRESSREPORTER.COM LAMESA PRESS-REPORTER LAMESA TEXAS